Rahul Sharma was driving to work when a truck ahead suddenly braked to avoid a stray animal crossing the road. Rahul braked in time, but the car behind him, a sedan at high speed, failed to maintain safe distance and collided into the rear of Rahul's car. The impact forced his vehicle forward, causing his left forearm to strike the steering wheel and his head to jerk backward, hitting the headrest hard. He lost balance and his right knee scraped against the dashboard. Passersby and traffic police on duty quickly assisted. An ambulance was called and arrived within 10 minutes. He was conscious but complained of dizziness, left arm pain, and bleeding from superficial leg wounds.
